The workshop chairpersons are very thankful to:

- The members of the International Advisory Committee, who enthusiastically responded to the request for input in terms of subjects and speakers. It is thanks to their suggestions that the scientific program of the workshop turned out to be so rich and interesting;
- All the colleagues who accepted to serve as chairpersons of the different sessions. Their successful effort in running impeccably their sessions was highly appreciated;
- All the speakers and poster presenters for the high quality of their material;
- All the students who have shown their commitment in the poster competition session;
- Alessia Valenza and Hervé Martinet for the excellent logistics support;
- The CERN library team for their great assistance in setting up these proceedings.
